Step One

Add your restaurant to Feebi

Feebi has you covered for all the common restaurant questions you can think of. All you have to do is fill out the correct information for your venue. Feebi then takes those details and responds to your customers.

If your policies change, you can go back to Feebi at any time and simply update your restaurant profile.

Step Two

Connect your Channels

Feebi is the only restaurant chatbot that doesn't require any training - for you or your staff. There's no flow builder, only a super simple setup.

Once you fill out your restaurant details, all you have to do is connect your online channels, and Feebi is ready to go. Answer questions from your website, Facebook Messenger and Google Listing, all from Feebi.

Step Three

Spend less time messaging

Feebi will take care of all your online customer queries, leaving your staff free to focus on service.

In the unlikely case that Feebi doesn't understand a question, there is a swift human handover, so you can pick up that question and respond directly.
